Greetings Fellow Scot,

As you know, the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit is a 501(c)3 organization. All profits from our Highland Games go toward charities the Society supports including our own William Kincaid Scholarship for Scottish Arts - the only one of its kind sponsored by a St. Andrew's Society anywhere in the world. I know this is a great source of pride for all of our members, especially as we have enjoyed hearing and seeing our scholarship recipients perform at membership meetings in the past. Other organizations supported are local and national charities such as Alma College and The National Trust of Scotland.

Each year as Games time approaches, we ask members to support the Games by making a donation to sponsor a trophy or medal. We award over 450 participant medals for competitions that include pipes and drums, heavy athletics, tug-o-war, Highland dance, best clan showcase and even the shortbread competition. The estimated cost of combined trophies and medals has exceeded $6,000 per year in the past.

If you are able to donate, suggested amounts are as follows, although we welcome donations in any amount:

	Donation Suggestion	Awarded to
Large Pewter Plate	$100	First Place Pipes and Drums, Heavy Athletics, Dance, Tug of War
